HAPPEN

Experience wondrous events and adventure through otherworldly landscapes in the Great Southern.

- Board a research vessel and cruise alongside wild orcas in remote Bremer Canyon or whales in Albany.
- Swim or snorkel in the protected and peppermint-tinged waters of Greens Pool and Elephant Rocks near Denmark.
- Hike up one of Western Australia's highest peaks, Bluff Knoll for wondrous views of Stirling Range National Park.
- Experience the Aboriginal traditions and culture in Kojonup, where you can immerse yourself in Aboriginal storytelling.
- Feel the surging power of the Southern Ocean, watching from the platform hanging over The Gap and Natural Bridge.
- Discover the Great Southern wine region, sampling the vast array of wine varieties from cabernet sauvignon to merlot and chardonnay.
- Soar above at Porongurup National Park's Granite Skywalk, with spectacular 360-degree views.
- Marvel at a chasing ship and processing factory at Albany's Historic Whaling Station, the only experience like it in the world.

Minister Welcome

Bloom Festival 27 September - 26 October 2025

The Cook Labor Government is a proud sponsor of the Bloom Festival through Tourism Western Australia's Regional Events Scheme (RES), funded by Royalties for Regions.

RES was established to support event holders across the State with the development of events to drive tourism to regional Western Australia. The scheme plays an important role in creating a timely reason for visitors to travel to the State's five tourism regions, activating pockets of Western Australia and creating vibrancy, while showcasing the host region's unique and diverse attractions.

A total of 63 regional events across Western Australia have been awarded funding through the 2025-26 RES, and includes a $150,000 funding pool for the Regional Aboriginal Events Scheme, which exclusively allocates funding to events delivering Aboriginal activities and experiences.

The Western Australian Government is proud to sponsor all these regional events, which help bring vibrancy to local communities and drive visitor spend, injecting millions into regional economies.

Tourism is a key part of our plan to diversify the economy, create jobs and develop business opportunities, especially in regional Western Australia. Events play an important role in this plan and also contribute to the Government's vision for Perth and Western Australia to be the fastest growing events destination in the South East Asia region.

The Western Australian Government sponsors a range of sporting, cultural, arts and culinary events across the state, to attract visitors and encourage them to stay longer, disperse further and spend more while they are here.

We hope everyone enjoys the Bloom Festival and takes the time to explore the Great Southern.

HON REECE WHITBY MLA MINISTER FOR TOURISM

Chil

HON STEPHEN DAWSON MLC MINISTER FOR REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Acknowledgment of Country

As we welcome you to explore the Great Southern Treasures within the Great Southern region, we acknowledge the Traditional Owners of this land — the Goreng, Wudjeri, Minang, Ganeang and Willman peoples of the Noongar Nation.

We pay our respects to their ancestors and Elders past, present and emerging, honouring their enduring connection to and care for, Boodja (Country).

For over 50,000 years the stories, knowledge, and culture of the Noongar people has continued to shape this region. We invite all visitors to tread with respect, curiosity, and appreciation for this ancient land and culture, contributing to its preservation for future generations.

WELCOME

Welcome to the 2025 Bloom Festival

Each Spring | Djilba, the Great Southern Treasures region of Western Australia transforms into a vibrant wonderland, captivating visitors with fields of wildflowers.

Bloom is an opportunity to immerse yourself in this natural spectacle and experience the rich cultural and community events that celebrates the renewal and vitality of this awakening season.

As you journey through the eight shires, follow the festival's calendar of events to see what captivates your interest. Enjoy bustling markets filled with local produce and handmade crafts, be enriched by historical and Aboriginal cultural tours, participate in creative botanical workshops and visit art and craft exhibitions that showcase nature-inspired artistry.

Embark on guided hikes and scenic wildflower drives, marvelling at the region's breathtaking landscapes. The Music Muster filling the air with vibrant sounds, while food and wine events offering a feast for the senses.

This incredible celebration would not be possible without the generous support of this year's sponsors: Tourism WA, Lotterywest, Road Safety Commission Western Australia, Great Southern Development Commission, Regional Development Australia Great Southern, Rio Tinto, Australia's South West, Clever Octopus and Southern Ports.

Join us in this greatly anticipated annual festival and let the Great Southern Treasures leave you inspired and beguiled by its wild and cultivated beauty with plans to return, and explore further

The Bloom Festival spans the entire Great Southern Treasures region, from Kojonup, out to Pingrup, down to Bremer Bay on the coast, across to the Porongurup and Frankland River, taking in major centres such as Katanning, the Stirling Range and Fitzgerald River National Parks and everything in between.

In this Festival Program, you will find information on all events being held during Bloom. Take note of the colour coding, which groups the events held in the same Shire so you can easily plan.

When you're ready to book, please follow the below steps.

Thank you for joining us in the Great Southern for wildflower season, we look forward to welcoming you to our beautiful part of the world.

A special thank you to our incredible sponsors for 2025:

Tourism WA, Lotterywest, Road Safety Commission Western Australia, Great Southern Development Commission, Regional Development Australia Great Southern, Rio Tinto, Australia's South West, Clever Octopus and Southern Ports.

SAFE TRAVEL

Always

- Keep your first aid kit stocked and accessible in your car
- Be prepared: ensure you have enough water
- Bring your mobile phone fully charged
- Travel at a safe speed: adapt your speed for the weather and road conditions
- Make sure children are properly restrained
- Lock your car when leaving it unattended & don't leave valuables in the car
- Be aware of wildlife, livestock, road trains, and machinery on country roads
- Leave no trace behind: take your rubbish with you

Never

- Use your mobile when driving
- Drive tired: make sure you take breaks, or swap drivers often
- Drink & drive: arrange a skipper or stay the night

TAKE CARE

Please take care as you are responsible for your own personal property and safety at all times. Great Southern Treasures, our partners, sponsors, and communities are not responsible for any loss, damage, or injury, however caused, to property, or persons at any of the events or on premises.

WILDFLOWER

HUNTING TIPS

Take nothing but photos

Please resist the urge to pick wildflowers - permits are required to pick any wildflowers. Any unlawful taking of wildflowers from a National Park or reserve will result in heavy fines by local rangers.

Be mindful of where you step

Stick to the marked and well-used trails, flowers are delicate and a whole plant is a fragile yet essential part of the ecosystem

Stay off private property

Wildflowers are not designated to public areas, but please only venture into public spaces; do not enter private properties without permission.

Leave no trace

There should be zero traces that you've visited the wildflowers. Please take your rubbish with you and do not damage the plants or their home.

And finally, have fun, stay safe, and enjoy the vast and expansive beauty of the Great Southern.

Wildflowers of The Great Southern Treasures.

Bloom Festival events weave together the natural beauty of the Great Southern Treasures with its vibrant cultural tapestry. While travelling through the region, marvel at the diverse array of wildflowers that are a seasonal botanical treasure trove.

In Kojonup, delight in the golden wattles and vibrant everlastings. In Pingrup, admire the striking pink and white pimeleas and delicate orchids. Bremer Bay offers coastal blooms like vivid coastal daisies and resilient succulents and the Porongurup and Frankland River regions are adorned with beautiful banksias and lush green kangaroo paws.

Considered a 'megadiverse hotspot', the Stirling Ranges rugged beauty supports more than 1500 species, 80 of them found nowhere else. The enchanting and unique mountain bells and rare blue lechenaultia are just 2 found within its 115,600 hectares.

UNESCO recognised as an international biosphere reserve, the Fitzgerald River National Park boasts an astonishing variety of over 1,800 beautiful and unique species of flowering plants including the iconic royal hakea and spectacular Qualup bell.

Shire of Gnowangerup

The name Gnowangerup is derived from the Aboriginal word 'Ngow,' meaning Malleefowl. For thousands of years, the plains around Gnowangerup were home to the Goreng Noongars. In the mid-nineteenth century, sandalwood cutters established camps in the area, but European settlement was slow until the completion of the railway line from Tambellup in 1912. The Shire's 100,000 hectares of farmland support a strong livestock industry and cropping enterprises in wheat, lupins, barley, canola, clover seed, peas, oats and faba beans.

Localities: Gnowangerup, Ongerup, Borden, Amelup, Cowalellup, Jackitup, Kebaringup, Magitup, Mills Lake, Mindarabin, Monjebup, Nalyerlup, North Stirlings, Pallinup, Stirling Range National Park.

Gnowangerup

Agricultural relics stand proudly on show in Gnowangerup, sharing the wheat and sheep town's pioneering heritage. The Gnowangerup Aboriginal Museum and Keeping Place shows the history of the indigenous people associated with the local Mission and Stirling Range, who used the plains as hunting grounds for thousands of years.

Borden

Set against the striking backdrop of the Stirling Range National Park, the thriving community of Borden boasts one of the largest working traditional windmills in Australia and a mountain of grain in a staggeringly huge grain storage facility. At the height of the sandalwood trade, Paper Collar Creek was a meeting point for the sandalwood cutters. When they headed to town, they would dress up their shirts with collars made of paperbark to impress the ladies.

- The Lily Dutch Windmill & Dakota DC3 accommodation
- Borden RSL building & Borden Pavilion
- Stirling Range National Park and Bluff Knoll
- Frankland River Wineries

Ongerup

The name Ongerup is derived from 'Yonga' the Noongar word meaning male kangaroo and 'up', meaning 'place of'. A small wheat and sheep service town, Ongerup has achieved fame with bird lovers for the Yongergnow Malleefowl Centre which is devoted to the conservation of the endangered Malleefowl.

Shire of Katanning

KAAT-NYINY is a local Noongar word meaning the head sits here. It comes from the Dreamtime story of Mulka, a giant man whose body parts are embedded in country. Katanning was a meeting point of three traditional Noongar domains: Wilmen, Kaneang, and Koreng, long before European settlement. Today, Katanning's meat processing facilities have drawn a wide range of migrant workers to the town over the past five decades, creating one of the most multicultural communities in regional Western Australia.

Shire of Kent

The Shire of Kent is located on the traditional land of the Goreng people of the Noongar nation. Nyabing was originally known as Nampup, after the aboriginal name given to the soak in the area. The first white men to visit the area were sandalwood cutters and the Nampup soak was the location of the first land grant. Many old buildings, halls and school sidings still exist in the shire. The local community holds these historical memories close to their hearts as many families of the original settlers still reside on family farms.

Localities: Nyabing, Pingrup

Nyabing

It is believed that the word Nyabing is from Aboriginal origin and is thought to be derived from the Aboriginal word "ne-yameng". Which is the name of an everlasting flower Helipterum manglessii. Nyabing was gazetted as a town in 1912 after the Katanning railway line was extended.

- Nyabing Settler's Hall
- Kwobrup Dam
- Memorial Park and Playground

Pingrup

Pingrup is also of Aboriginal origin and was the name of a lake that is close to the townsite and signifies a place for digging. The name first appeared on the charts of the area in 1873. Pingrup is now part of the remarkable FORM Public Silo Trail.

Shire of Kojonup

The Shire of Kojonup rests on the traditional lands of the Geneang people of the Noongar nation. The name "Kojonup" is derived from the Noongar word for "axe" (Kodj), referencing the stone axes made from local stone. European settlers arrived in 1837 who came for Kojonup's freshwater spring. It was soon flanked by a military barracks in 1845 and remain one of the oldest surviving military buildings in Western Australia. Agriculture is the Shire's main employer.

Localities: Kojonup, Balgarup, Muradup, Ongerup, Namarillup.

Shire of Woodanilling

The Wiilman people of the Noongar nation are the traditional custodians of the land. 'Woodanilling' is the Noongar word meaning 'place of little fishes'. Named after a spring in the Boyerine Creek 1km south of the townsite, it was a gathering place for new settlers and became known as Round Pool. The construction of the Perth/Albany Road in the early 1850's brought many pastoralists to the fine grazing lands. The area was also a rich source of sandalwood
